

St. Peter School Newsletter

Thursday Folder Edition

December 7, 2017

Holy Day of Obligation

Please join us this Friday, December 8 as we will celebrate Mass at 9:00 AM instead of 8:30 AM in honor of this Holy Day.

Featured Student

This week's featured student is Chloe Bing.

Chloe is in preschool and it is said that she comes into the classroom every day with a smile on her face and curious about the day's activities. Chloe loves being able to see her older brother, Henry at school. Chloe is a great role model for the rest of her peers.

Reminder

NO SCHOOL ON MONDAY, DECEMBER
11.

See you on Tuesday, December 12th. Enjoy the long weekend!

Classroom Stories

Mrs. Aquirre, our Kindergarten Teacher Aide, facilitates a visit from Pepe. He is one of the students' favorite storytellers. They love his visits and are very attentive to the story presented. Pepe's story today was "Dora, When I Grow Up". It was well received by all!

Spiritual Formation

This past weekend third grader Ganon Mitchell and alumni Alyssa Mitchell received the Sacrament of Baptism at St. Peter Church. Congratulations to both. May God Bless you in all you do.

Hallelujah Hornets

Congratulations to our December Hallelujah Hornets

Preschool: Quentin Adams

Kindergarten: Ethan Carmen

Grade 1: Heidy Baten-Perez

Grade 2: Evan Addressi

Grade 3: Valenthena Demetro

Grade 4: Meghan Greenhill

Grade 5: Javier Baten-Hernandez

Special Thanks

We extend our heart-felt thanks to the Knights of Columbus Council 341 for their most generous gift of 24 coats that 12 of our boys and 12 of our girls will have to stay warm this winter. They spread their gifts and joy to many children in our area.