Preschool JFS Provider

St. Peter Preschool is now a Provider for CDJFS. Parents who are employed, in school or participating to meet the requirements of the OWF cash assistance or SNAP can apply for help to pay for their childcare in the county where they live by contacting the county department of Job and Family Services (CDJFS). You can get more information about the childcare program from your County Department of Job and Family Services.

Golden Apple Award Nominations - Hurry

It is that time of year again that you are asked to nominate a favorite educator for the Golden Apple Award. This is a yearly program and nominations for a teacher or a principal may be made in one of the following ways: by a teacher; by any parent; by an elementary student along with his/her parent; by a high school student. The Nomination Form can be obtained in the school office. All nominations should be sent to the principal by January 12, 2018; the principal will then verify the nominee's eligibility requirements and obtain letters of reference from the nominee's pastor, and the pastor of the school.

Featured Student

Quentin Adams is truly an example of a Halleluiah Hornet. He talks to his friends and teachers about how they are doing, what we are doing today, and always says how he is going to be the role model for the classroom. Quentin loves to have his big brother, Lucas, in the classroom with him. He enjoys circle time, centers, and enjoys participating in our prayers in the morning, before snack and before lunch.
